

Ruth C. Hill, PhD, MFT: BA, University of California at Berkeley; MA, University of California at Berkeley; PhD, Wright Institute, Berkeley. Dr. Hill specializes in cross-cultural psychotherapy and has been a consultant to agencies and courts in the San Francisco Bay Area. She is Clinical Director of the Family Support Services Program at Bessie Carmichael School, San Francisco, providing direct clinical services to children and their parents. She is a Jungian-oriented psychotherapist in private practice in Berkeley.